EPIDEMIC OF SORE THROATS IN ST. LOUIS

Settled Weather Brings Improvement, but Many Hundreds Are Still Afflicted.

OLD REMEDIES OF LITTLE USE.

Physicians Say That the Malady Is Glandular Fever, and Is Partly Due to Changes in Weight of Garments.

St. Louis is suffering from an epidemic of sore throats. The last week has brought a change for the better, due to the more settled weather, but there are hundreds of men, women and children in the city who are going about with a tickling sensation in the throat, which causes a cough that is a second cousin to the cough of a consump

The smoker attributes the cause to his cigars and the young woman declares it is attributable to her light spring gown. Both declare they will discard the troublemakers and rush pell-mell to a drug store for throat lozenges and troches. Temporary relief is afforded this way, but the coughing does not cease and the soreness continues. Doctor H. L. Nietert, Superintendent of Doctor H. L. Nietert, Superintendent of the City Hospital, said yesterday: "The changeable weather has caused the sore throats or glandular fever. For a few days the thermometer registered close around the 30 mark. Then it fell suddenly. While it was warm the heavy underwear of winter was discarded and lighter material was donned. Ask most of those who have sore throats now if they did not first expe-rience the trouble after changing from win-ter to summer underwear. I believe they summer underwear. I believe they

"If the sore throat is accompanied by a cold I would suggest as simple remedies quinine and warm drinks upon going to bed. Don't kick the bed coverings off after taking the warm drinks." Doctor Samuel R. Johnson of the City

Dispensary said:
"We have had a large number of cases o "We have had a large number of cases of sore throat at the dispensary this spring. I find on close examination that it is not so much an affection of the tonsils as it is a feverish condition of the glands farther down in the throat. It causes a tickling sensation which, of course, makes the patient cough. It is a self-limited disease and I do not think it would result in anything more serious should it be allowed to run. I prescribe for the ordinary cases twenty drops of tincture of iron in a teaspoonful of glycerine. If that does not afford ready relief the patient is afflicted with something more serious and should consult his physician."

Recently the epidemic reached the patients at the City Insane Asylum, and Doctor Runge, the superintendent, was called upon daily to treat the throats of his unfortunate patients. It has been checked now and but a few cases remain, these being among the patients who were last to be attacked by the malady.

STRUCK TO GET BRIDGE REPAIRED

Six Thousand Cigarmakers of Tam pa, Fla., Go Out With No Grievance Against Employers.

Tampa, Fla., May 15 .- Six'thousand cigarmakers struck here to-day owing to an unusual cause. A bridge which connects Tampa with her western suburbs has been broken for two days. The men had to be ferried across the river and this was slow and unsatisfactory. This morning it was proposed that they strike, to force the manufacturers to bring pressure to bear for the quick repair of the bridge. By noon 4,000 strikers were swarming the streets. Cigar manufacturers will lose thousands of dollars on tobacco, which was already prepared for to-day's work. Splendid Offices for Rent. $17.50 per month and upward, in the new

Thirty-six of the orphans went out in a special car on the Missouri Pacific this morning, and were met at various points along the line by their adopted parents. Fifteen were accepted at Union Station by farmers of St. Louis County and neighboring counties, who are to care for the children in the future. One other, a little girl, 4 years old, was sent on a lonely trip down to Monett, Mo., via the Frisco. She was under the impression that the man who would meet her at the end of her trip was her "real papa," and the terrors of a journey by herself were dispelled by the joyful prospect of meetins the father whom she had never seen, yet whom she loved because he was "papa." It is said that the New York Poundling Asylum finds homes for more waifs than any other institution in the United States.

"Boonville, Mo., May 11, 1901.—To the School Board, Webster Groves, Mo.: Gentlemen—I desire to state that on the 8th inst., I had the pleasure of visiting for a day in your schools. It affords me further pleasure to bear testimony to the most excellent work that was being done, and to the earnestness and efficiency of your corps of teachers.

"I have only this criticism to make relative to the building and equipment: I find the High School is badly hampered for lack of sufficient room and that laboratory equipment and facilities are inadequate to secure the best results in science work. If the deficiency in this respect can be remedied. I am sure there will not be found in the State a High School outranking the one of Webster Groves."
